

FAQ For Programs June 2026

Admission:

Please ensure you have your ticket's QR code available for scanning either in your phone or a printed copy. Wristbands will be given to you at the time of scanning the QR code for re-entry purpose.

The hall will be opened 1 hour prior to the event. Please be seated at least 10 minutes before program starts. There will be no more admittance when the program begins. All attendees will sit on chairs. There will be no removal of foot wear.

Hall open time:

12 June 2026 Amitabha Phowa Transmission and Teaching: 1:00PM

13 June 2026 Rigsum Gonpo Empowerment: 9:00AM

14 June 2026 Vajrakilaya Torma Empowerment: 9:00AM

Public Transit:

Bus #401 can be taken from the Canada Line Brighthouse Station.

Parking:

The hotel offers paid parking at $15/day for events. Parking codes will be available a week before the event.

Empowerment prayers

Mobile device viewable prayers as well as printable PDF file will be available a week before the event.

Accommodation

Students travelling from out of town are kindly advised to plan their travel and accommodation early, as FIFA football matches will be taking place during this period in Vancouver and Seattle. Accommodation can be arranged directly through Airbnb, Expedia, or other reputable booking platforms. Please note that the centre is unable to provide accommodation or related assistance.

Face Masks:

Face masks are recommended.

Food and drinks:

No food or drink in the hall. Please do not leave any garbage in the hall when you leave, bring them out of the hall and dispose any garbage you have in the proper recycling or garbage bins outside.

Children:

For parents with children, please ensure that they do not disturb other attendees during the program who are trying to concentrate on the teachings.

Distribution of materials

No distribution of any materials by any individuals before, during or after the events at the venue without the organizer's prior approval.

Photos and videos

No photo or video taking during the empowerment.

The organizer reserves the right to remove any person who causes disturbance or disregard the directives provided above.

Further inquiries may be sent to sakyavancouver@gmail.com.